Edgar was indicted on two charges jointly with his partner, with Vice-President Guilford and General Traffic Manager Pomeroy, of the New York. Central. The first charges conspiracy to violate the rebating law and the second charges the actual violation. Seven officials of the companies concerned were indicted by the Federal Grand Jury. Edgar and Earl are among the largest wholesale sugar jobbers in the West.

Two stowaways, one of whom was a prisoner during the entire voyage, arrived from Christiania this afternoon on the steamship Hellig Olav. They were discovered two days out of the foreign port and the captain ordered them to two work on the ground that he wouldn't have come to America if he wanted to work. He said, however, he enjoyed the prison fare. Neither would give his name.
